The American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) transfer forms are the official bridge that moves ownership from one rider to another, ensuring every horse's lineage, health, and registration details are accurately reflected. For buyers and sellers alike, mastering these documents is essential to avoid costly mistakes and protect investment. When a horse changes hands, its AQHA registration must be updated to reflect the new owner. The Transfer Form (TX) is the vehicle for this change. It captures key data—race record, pedigree, health certificates, and any special conditions—so that the AQHA database remains consistent and reliable. Without a properly completed TX, the horse's record could be misfiled, leading to registration disputes, eligibility issues for shows, or even legal complications. Gather Information.
