testing windows into a single, searchable document. Unlike the rolling “academic” year view many districts use, the WCPSS version keeps every date fixed for the entire year, making it easier for busy families to align childcare, work shifts, and vacation plans. Visit the WCPSS website under “Calendars & Schedules” and download the PDF titled “2024-2025 Traditional Calendar.” Saving a copy to a cloud drive guarantees access from any device, even when you’re offline. Highlight three categories that affect most schedules: District Holidays, Teacher In-Service Days, and Testing Windows. Mark these in a bright color on your personal planner; the visual cue alone reduces missed appointments by up to 30 %. Import the PDF’s .ics file into Google Calendar, Outlook, or Apple Calendar. Once integrated, you’ll receive automatic reminders 48 hours before each key date, eliminating manual entry errors. Bus routes often shift on holidays or teacher in-service days. Pull the latest bus schedule from the WCPSS transportation portal and overlay it onto the calendar view you created. This step prevents surprise pickup changes for elementary students.
